LOU AND GLEN TAKE MEMORIES OF AMERICA BACK TO BRAZIL

Loucio Flavio de Oliveira, 17 years of age from Porto Alegre, Brazil. Lou remained here from January 12-July 9, 1974, with the Dan Wright family. Lou spent his 17th birthday in America on January 29, 1974. He traveled to many exciting places in America, New York, Washington D.C., Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and loved his visit in Muncie, Indiana. Lou's family consist of Father, Mother, one older brother, one younger brother, two younger sisters.

Glenylson Lopes da Rocha, 16 years of age from Curitiba, Brazil. Glen remained in America from January 6-July 7, 1974, with the Jim Smith family. Glen's birthday is in September, his family consist of Father, Mother, one brother, and one sister. Glen also traveled to New York, Washington D.C., Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia. Glen liked Muncie, and Cowan High School. Glen attended the Junior-Senior Prom and had a great time. Glen participated in many of the activities of school and says he would like to come back to America some day.

ADMINISTRATION TAKES ACTION FOR

School Board. Left-Right, Mr. Carlton Dick, Mr. Donald Siewert, President, Mr. Gene Shockley, Vice-President, Mrs. Eleanor Miller, Secretary, Mrs. Marjorie Rees.

Mr. Marcus Lane: Superintendent of Cowan High School, has done his best this past 73-74 year to make Cowan as successful in all areas of curriculum as he has done in previous years. He works daily on routines of passing documents, keeping records of everything going on at school, and keeps order within faculty and students.

ELEMENTARY BUILDING IN FALL OF 1975

Mr. Orville Wiebusch: Principal of Cowan High School heads students with authority on discipline and personality. Mr. Weibusch worked dubiously on making Cowan High School Better within and without the system.

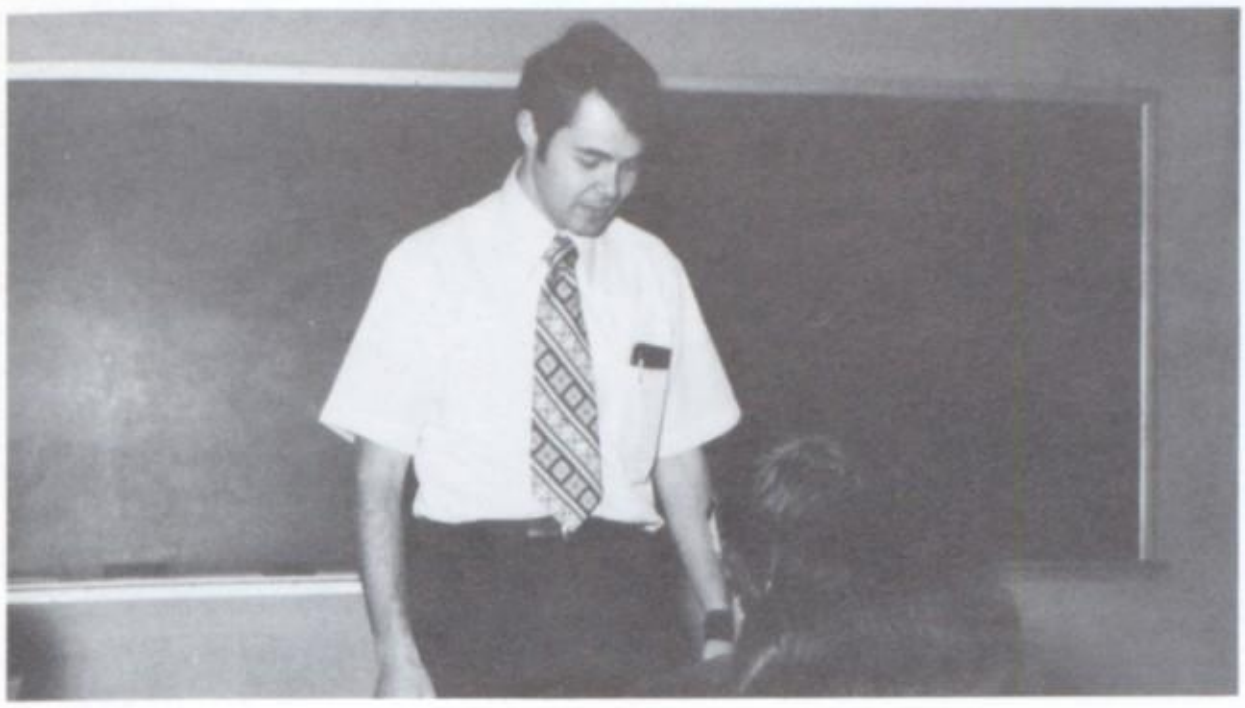
Mr. David Fountain: Assistant Principal, Athletic Director, coach and "chain saw perfectionist". Mr. Fountain strives for the better things in Cowan High School; as Assistant Principal, he fills in for Mr. Wiebusch when needed. As Athletic Director, he is involved and interested in all sports of Cowan. As coach of the baseball team he diligently works for a victorious season. As chain saw perfectionist he learns his lesson.

Mrs. Joan Keesling: secretary for Mr. Lane, keeps records of all the main school documents, and records of financial papers of the elementary and high school.

Mrs. Nancy Grunin: secretary for Mr. Weibusch. This is Mrs. Gruin's first year and she has been more than sufficient. Mrs. Grunin keeps financial records for all the organizations, as well as many other records for students.

Mrs. Maxine Siewert: the financial manager for cafeteria. She works at the ala-cart line and collects elementary money as well.

CORRECT MATHEMATICAL TECHNIQUES LEAD TO THE RIGHT ANSWERS



Mr. Dennis Kane: eighth grade mathematics, geometry, and physics. Mr. Kane is married and has no children at this time.

Mr. Albert Miller: general mathematics, seventh grade mathematics, and seventh grade geography. Mr. Miller is married and has a little girl.

Mr. Donald Myers: in his first year of teaching, Algebra I and II, general mathematics and Senior mathematics. Mr. Myers is the Varsity Wrestling Coach. He is married with no children at this time.

CORRECT GRAMMAR, LITERATURE, AND CREATIVENESS ARE TECHNIQUES TAUGHT

Mrs. Diana Mayer: English III, Creative Writing, Mass Media, and Reading Lab. Mrs. Mayer is sponsor of Literary Magazine and is coach of the girls softball team. She has a daughter.

Mrs. Lucille Shesler: eighth and ninth grade English, Art I and II, and is advisor of the Yearbook. Mrs. Shesler has three children and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Susan Coleman: Speech, Journalism and seventh and eighth grade English; she is also advisor of Accipiter, the school newspaper.

Miss Carol Moger: English I and II, Spanish, and is sponsor of the Spanish Club. This is Miss Moger's first year at Cowan.

EXPERIENCED HOMEAKERS DEMONSTRATE SKILLS

Mrs. Margery Gibeaut: Home Economics seventh, eighth, I, II, and III. She is adult leader of girls 4-H, and FHA advisor. Mrs. Gibeaut is the longest teaching high school teacher at Cowan at the present time.

Mrs. Nancy Campbell: junior high home economics, family relations and she is head of Cafeteria. Mrs. Campbell has two boys who attend Cowan School, grades 4 and 7.

SCIENCE LABS PROGRESS AS THE DEPARTMENT TEACHERS BREATHE EASIER.

Mr. Doug Shock: biology, conservation, eighth grade Science, advance biology, and Science Club Sponsor. Mr. Shock is married.

Miss Janice Garner: Chemistry I and II. German I and II. Miss Garner is a graduate from Cowan High School.

Mr. Bruce Thompson: physical science, seventh and eighth science. This is Mr. Thompson's first year at Cowan. He is married.

GOOD LUCK

SENIORS

FROM

1974 SACHEM STAFF

LAST MOMENTS EXPRESS SADNESS, HAPPINESS,

DEPARTURE

Solemn hills

Silent streams

look on as we part.

A journey unknown

awaits company

A cloud drifts

like a wanderer lost

The sun sets memory rises . . . .

We wave,

turn away

and all are gone.

We stand still–

the shadow of a statue

It would have been eternity

but for the whinny of a horse

the sigh of a breeze

Our cheeks shiver–

Wet.

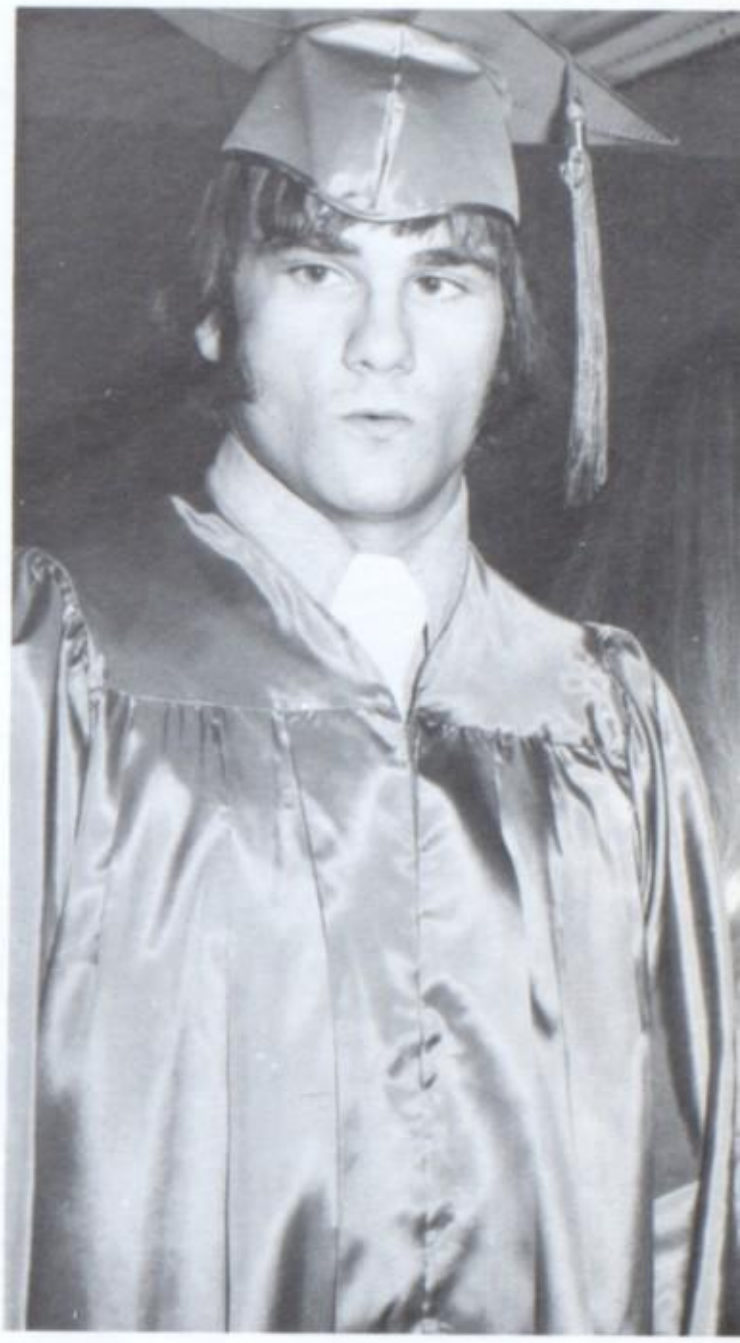
Eddie Tsang

Marla Wilson and Wanda Troxler are happy about it all.

Right: Lon Wright leads the seniors in and ushers at the stairs.

NERVOUSNESS AND THANKFULNESS

Diana Metzger getting ready for the big night at graduation. Lisa Brown in background.



Jack Ropple is ready and thinking of old times about to end.

Lisa Brown, Shane Garringer, Michelle McDonald, Sue Wise, are anxious and nervous in getting ready to graduate.

SENIORS ARE NOW READY

Colors:
Crimson Red and Navy Blue

Flower:
Red Carnation

Motto:
Learn as if you were to live forever;
live as if you were to die tomorrow.

Co-Valedictorian Debbie Holland speaks at graduation on aspects of life and goals.

Co-Valedictorian, John Pinegar gives last speech at Cowan High School.

FOR HIGHER GROUND

John Pinegar is first to receive diploma from Mr. Lane, Superintendant.

Seniors give attention to Mr. Weibusch; Principal, as he gives his speech to the Senior class.

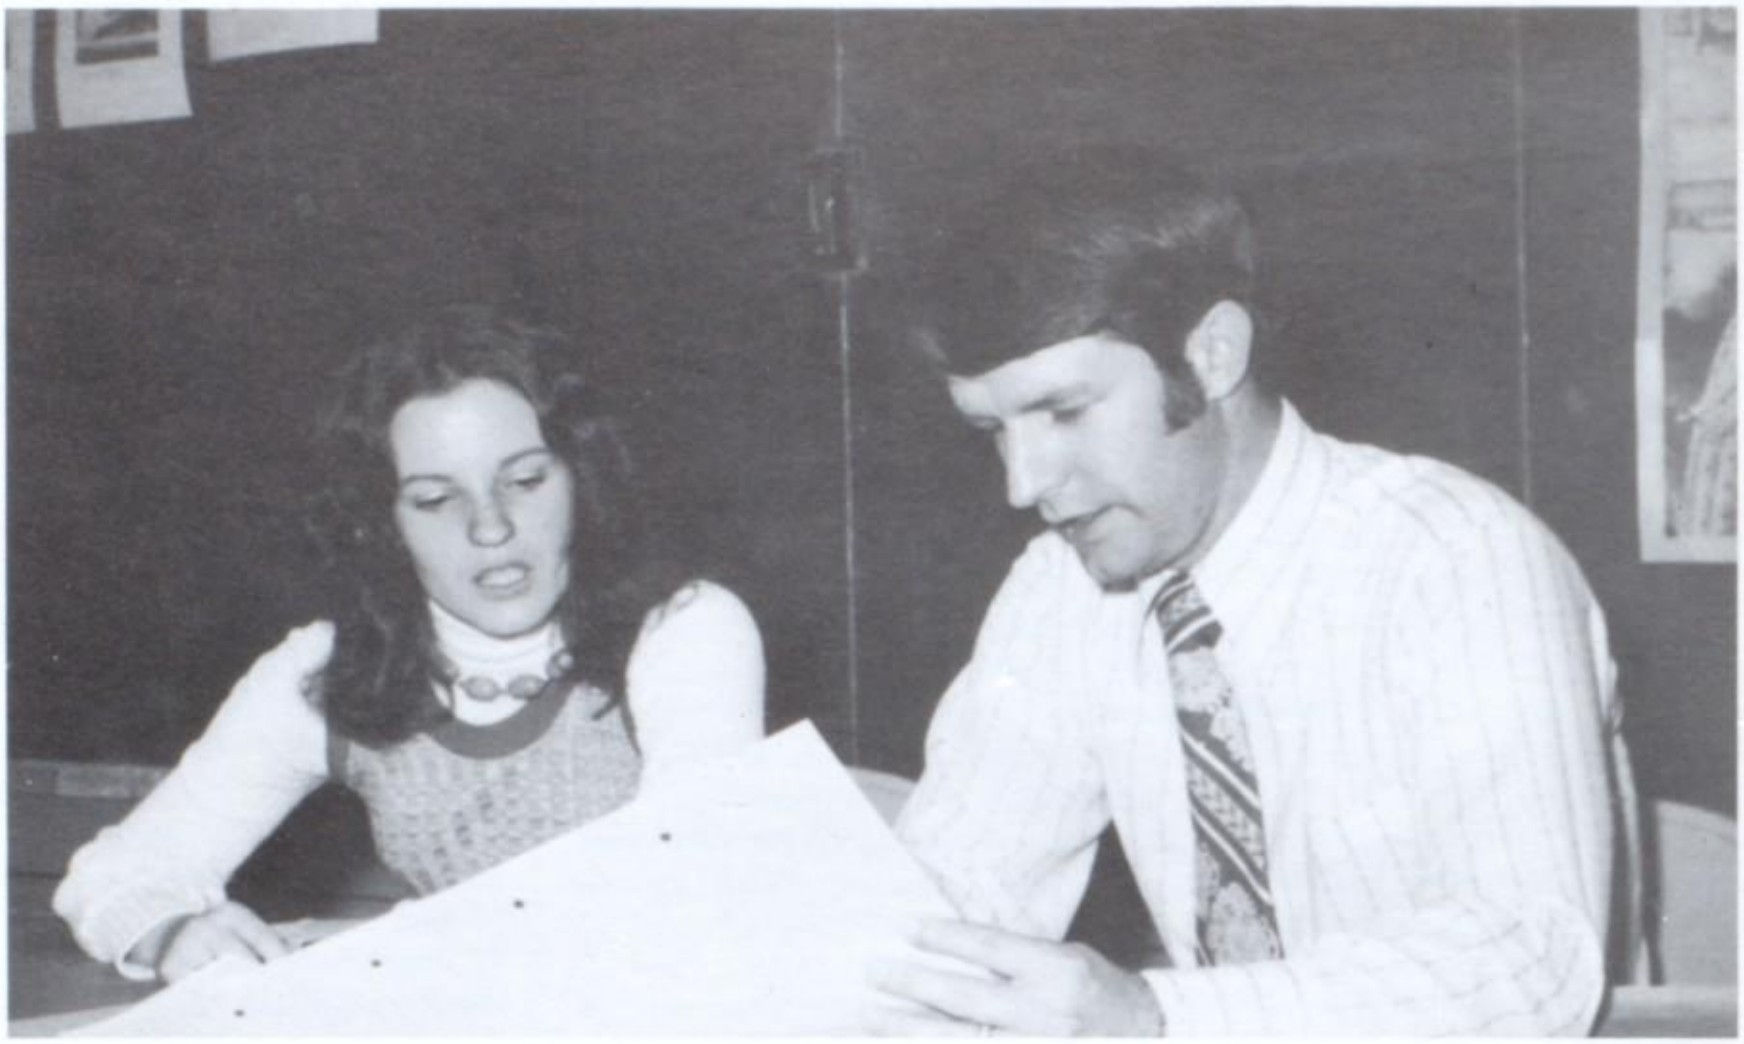
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT



I would like to give my deepest thanks to Mrs. Lucille Shesler, sponsor and Mr. Larry Glaze, representative from the printing company for the assistance and guidance in putting this yearbook together in 1974.

I would also like to thank the Sachem Staff for a tremendous job in selling the ads, which brought the financial status of the yearbook in the clear. Many thanks also to those that were there at deadlines.

To the photographers Lisa Brown and Jim McCullagh, a very special thanks for a job well done even to the end. Thank you.

Bev. Manis
